

2008 Summer Institute for Educational Leadership Northern Michigan University

Registration Information

The 2008 Educational Leadership Institute is designed to bring practicing and future school administrators together to discuss current issues in school administration and leadership. School administrators and teachers who are interested in becoming administrators are encouraged to attend. The Institute is co-sponsored by NMU's School of Education and the Upper Peninsula Center for Educational Development (UPCED).

Each Session of the Summer Institute is offered for a fee of $40.00 ($80.00 for both sessions). This fee does not include tuition and fees associated with attending the Institute for University credit.

Course credit requires registration through the University.
