

2009 Summer Institute for Educational Leadership

Northern Michigan University

Registration Information

The 2009 Educational Leadership Institute is designed to bring practicing and future school administrators together to explore current issues in school administration and leadership. School administrators and teachers who are interested in becoming administrators are encouraged to attend. The Institute is co-sponsored by NMU's School of Education and the Upper Peninsula Center for Educational Development (UPCED). You may take it for ED 596 credit or ED 989 credit. NOTE: ED 596 requires written work and can be used in MA administration programs.

Each Session of the Summer Institute is offered for a fee of $40.00 ($80.00 for both sessions) to cover food and materials. This fee does not include tuition and fees associated with attending the Institute for University credit.

Course Credit Requires Northern Michigan University Registration.
