

Teaching Biomechanics Online

Darla R. Smith

University of Texas at El Paso

History

- Kinesiology Online Collaborative
- 6 UT Campuses (4 Degree Granting)
- Our Courses = Your Courses
- Our Faculty = Your Faculty
- 1st Courses – Fall 2000

KIN 5361:

Biomechanical Basis of Sport

- 1st offered – Spring 2001
- 11 total offerings
- Major and minor revisions

Lesson 1 - Syllabus

- Welcome
- Contact Information
- Course Description and Purpose
- Course Objectives
- Instructor's Biography and Picture
- Textbooks
- Discussion Board
- Grading
- Effective Electronic Communication
- University Policies
- Technical Support
- Technical Requirements
- Course Copyright Notice

Index ↑

Next

[Instructor
Welcome
Message](#)

[TA
Welcome
Message](#)

Note: The instructor reserves the right to make changes in the syllabus, or course, as deemed necessary. Students will be given plenty of notice of any and all changes.

Personalize

- Instructor Welcome Message
- TA Welcome Message
- Student Pictures and Bios
- Small Group Discussions

3rd Party Content

- Monterrey Institute for Technology and Education
 - <http://www.monterreyinstitute.org/index.html>
- HS Foundations, AP, College Foundations

Assignments

- Article Reviews
- Projects
- Math Problems
- Exams
- Labs

Pros

- Access
- Flexibility
- Perfect for Self-motivated Students

Cons

- Lab Access
- “Campus” Experience
- F-2-F Important for Some Students & Faculty

The University of Texas at El Paso

Questions?

